

Curriculum Summary Document

Year 11 English

Module/Unit of Learning	Term Taught	What will students learn?	How will this build a broad and strong foundation?	Links to other subjects
An Inspector Calls	Autumn 1	Students will read and analyse An Inspector Calls developing a critical understanding of staging, character and theme and how this supports Priestley's message.	Students will hone their skills of driving analysis with the writer's message and writing critical concepts. They will also learn strategies for how to learn quotes in preparation for the Literature exam.	History, Drama, PSHE
Power and Conflict Poetry	Autumn 2	Students will analyse and revise a selection of poems from the Power and Conflict anthology cluster, comparing ideas across poems.	Students will hone their analytical and comparative writing skills by comparing poems.	History
English Language Paper 1	Autumn 1 and 2	Using a range of fiction extracts and short stories, students will explore and analyse the structure and language, using these as models for developing and crafting their own creative writing.	Throughout the unit, students will refine the craft of their own creative writing, using a range of ambitious vocabulary and conscious crafting of structure, sentence forms and punctuation for effect.
English Language Paper 2	Autumn 1 and 2	Students will analyse methods used by non-fiction writers to express viewpoints and perspectives, and then use these in their own writing through crafting articles, letters and speeches.	Students will use examples of non-fiction writing as models for their own non-fiction writing, using a range of linguistic devices and vocabulary.
Spaced learning	Spring 1 and 2	Students will complete a variety of revision units covering all of their English Language and Literature exams. They will complete extended exam practice.	Students will hone their knowledge of the exam questions and their requirements, applying this to exam questions, building on their identified target areas and strengths.
Revision	Summer 1	Final revision lessons for English Language and Literature.	Students to refine their revision strategies and timings in their exams, building on their own strengths and weaknesses.	